

Accord Mortgages presently has no new business Prime and Credit Repair products available.

Existing Borrower Transfer and Additional Loan products remain available, please see the separate guides

This is due to high levels of business being received and is a temporary measure to enable Accord's service to return to usual standards. As such, there will be no replacement products for a limited period. We will update you when new business products become available again.