YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

When you register for Power of Attorney / Court Appointee we will use your personal information together with other information available (including relevant sensitive information, e.g. health, offences and legal proceedings or other item as appropriate) for:

- Enabling you to fulfil your duties as Attorney/Court Appointee
- Identify verification (including checking documents with issuing authorities (e.g. driving licence - DVLA)
- Processing your application
- Contacting you where necessary
- Fraud prevention and detection
- Administering your account
- Legal and regulatory compliance
- Marketing (where we have your consent) and market research
- General business purposes

We will share information with one or more Credit Reference Agencies (CRA's), now and in the future, to:

- Check your identity
- Verify the accuracy of the information you have provided
- Manage your account(s)/relationship with us
- Process your application
- Ensure any offers we send are appropriate to you
- Prevent criminal activity, fraud and money laundering

Credit Reference Agencies (CRAs) are used to perform credit, identity and fraud prevention checks against public (electoral register) and shared credit information (You can learn more about how your personal information is used by visiting <https://www.experian.co.uk/legal/crain/>)

- The personal information we have collected from you will be shared with Fraud prevention agencies such as CIFAS and National Hunter. You can learn more about how your personal information is used by visiting <https://www.cifas.org.uk/fpn> or <https://nhunter.co.uk/privacy-policy> Fraud prevention agencies can hold your personal data for different periods of time, and if you are considered to pose a fraud or money laundering risk, your data can be held for up to six years.
- Where we transfer personal information to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA), this is always done under a contract which includes appropriate safeguards for the security and confidentiality of your personal information, with your consent, or where permitted by the Data Protection laws.
- We will only use, keep and share your personal information as required to meet our legal and regulatory obligations or to deal with your enquiry, administer, and manage your accounts, products and relationship with us. After this time, we will delete your personal information in line with the requirements of the Financial Conduct Authority, Prudential Regulation Authority, Money Laundering regulations, Financial Ombudsman Service, HMRC and any other regulatory bodies.
- We will respect your rights to privacy and will only collect, use, store and share your personal information where a lawful purpose applies:
- It's necessary for the performance of a contract you have or have requested to enter into.
- If we have a legal obligation.
- If we have a legitimate business interest where it does not have a fair impact on you.
- If you have given your consent where the collection, use, storage or sharing involves special category (sensitive) personal information (e.g. health, race and religion).
- Where we believe you or another person is at risk and we need to protect your or their vital interest.
- Where it's in the public interest or we have been given official authority to do so.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR POWER OF ATTORNEY

- Yorkshire Building Society decides what personal information we need to collect about you, how we use it, who we share it with and how long we keep it. This makes us the data controller of your personal information for data protection purposes.
- We will use the personal information obtained from you and additional information obtained in the course of opening and managing your account. This includes, but is not limited to, name, address, identification, account transactions and communications and where relevant sensitive information, credit reference data, financial crime data, health details, nationality and legal proceedings.

DISCLOSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may disclose your personal information with other people or organisations as follows:

- With Yorkshire Building Society and its subsidiary companies for fraud prevention, lawful purposes, account administration and for general business purposes (e.g. updating customer records, handling customer queries and complaints).
- Personal information to (i) our external auditors and regulatory bodies including Financial Ombudsman Service, Prudential Regulation Authority and the Financial Conduct Authority, and (ii) associate companies, agents and service providers including solicitors and valuers acting for the Society, field agents, debt recovery agents, tracing agents, letting agents, brokers, printers, market research agencies and providers of information technology services.
- If we sell or transfer all or part of our business, we may share or transfer our customer records as part of the proposed/actual sale or transfer. However, we will only do so under contract or where we have a legal obligation to do so. The protection, security and confidentiality of your personal information are important to us and we put in place appropriate safeguards to manage this.

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER DATA PROTECTION LAWS

You have the right to:

- Be informed about processing of your personal information.
- Have your personal information corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Object to or restrict the processing of your personal information.
- Have your personal information erased subject to conditions (e.g. where the processing fails to satisfy legal requirements).
- Request access to your personal information also known as data portability.
- Challenge automated decision making including profiling, which is the automated processing of your personal information to evaluate certain things about you.
- Complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (<https://ico.org.uk/>) which enforces Data Protection laws.
